DESCRIPTION:

I. General Description: Tau Beta Pi volunteered on make a difference day at the Auburn Hills Community Center. Helping the elderly prepare by winter by raking leaves, and establishing a continued dialogue encourage TBP members to be involved in the community outreach program. While volunteering our time helping the elderly's landscape, we learned about their initiatives, history (and the history of our school), and best practices.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: The purpose of this event is to bolster our TBP community, develop relationships with other organizations in the school, and to assist the community in which we live as a whole. While on the farm we learned about an engineering problem they were working to solve, and the solutions they came up with. We familiarized ourselves with the school, and worked to improve our community.

III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group?)  Yes     No

IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: Boots, weather appropriate attire. Equipment and gloves were provided by the farm.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: This event was organized with the intent of allowing TBP members the opportunity to serve their community in a variety of ways. Services offered by the Tutoring Center in Oakland University are usually limited to lower level general education classes, and the four core engineering classes, but there is nothing for the 3000-4000 level courses. Our members were able to provide guidance for some of the most difficult engineering courses.

Also by holding this event on campus, it gave the members a chance to see what the rec center has to offer, which promotes campus life. By socializing as a group, we have become a more connected and involved organization both in the learning environment and the community. It allows members to meet initiates as well as graduate members.

DESCRIPTION:

I. General Description: Once a year in January or February, Oakland University offers SECS (School of Engineering and Computer Science) Day for high school students to introduce them to our Engineering Building, our majors offered, and how they can become a part of our University. For this day, our chapter participated in assisting the faculty set up the stations located around the building and transporting tables and chairs. Most importantly, though, we followed the non-engineering major tour guides around and answered any questions the guests may have since we were the ones that knew a lot more about the building itself and the majors we are invested in. Some of the chapter members also acted as student panel members.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: The purpose of attending this event was to assist and help our university run a successful day and to hopefully inspire these high school students to become engineers. We also spread the word of our honor society and encouraged the high school students to join our chapter since being a member not only demonstrate knowledgeable attained in the field, but it also demonstrates exemplary character.

III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group?)  Yes     No

The School of Engineering and Computer Science organized the event and we volunteered to assist them with anything they may need help with. Continually contacting the secretary Jane Dietrich and setting up the google doc of who is coming took around 2 hours total.

IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: The School of Engineering and Computer Science needed 30+ volunteers. No cost was due to the chapter.

V. Special Problems: N/A

VI. Overall Evaluation/Results (Be Specific): We had a total of 24 volunteers participate. The day ran smoothly. Feedback from our members helped us find that we were unable to effectively help with Computer Science questions. We relayed this information to the department.

DESCRIPTION:

I. General Description: One of the offered social events to our members/initiates/graduate members was a fowling and axe throwing center near Oakland University. The TBP community met here for friendly competition and socializing.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: This event allows Tau Beta members to have a chance to meet up outside of the normal school environment to socialize and have some food and play fowling and axe throwing. By socializing as a group, we have become a more connected and involved organization both in the learning environment and the community. It allows members to meet initiates as well as graduate members.

III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group?)     Yes     No

IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: Only requirements include: The cost was $320 which was covered by our Student Org Office, but $5 was also collected from each attending TBP members to help support future TBP expenses during the semester. The Hub Stadium in Auburn Hills, MI was the location and we had to reserve lanes for the fowling and axe throwing.

V. Special Problems: N/A

VI. Overall Evaluation/Results (Be Specific): This event went as expected, we had a good turnout and most people who attended stayed for the entire duration of the event. We believe that this event really helped jumpstart the remainder of the semesters participation because it brought excitement to the members and a chance to get to know each other.

DESCRIPTION:

I. General Description: TBP members provide the general engineering community the opportunity to ask questions regarding their classes, helping students come up with study strategies, and making the material easier to digest.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: This event was organized with the intent of allowing TBP members the opportunity to serve their community in a variety of ways. Services offered by the Tutoring Center in Oakland University are usually limited to lower level general education classes, and the four core engineering classes, but there is nothing for the 3000-4000 level courses. Our members were able to provide guidance for some of the most difficult engineering courses.

III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group?)  Yes  No

IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: Only requirements include: Snacks, $30. Poster, free.

V. Special Problems: Dietary restrictions.

VI. Overall Evaluation/Results (Be Specific): Based on feedback from last semester, we had study hall going on a regular basis (being every other monday). This seemed more helpful for the students as they could email us in advance, and we could ensure someone would be at the study hall who could assist them. The main challenge with this event is increasing awareness of the event to the general student body.
