DESCRIPTION OR INDEX TO ATTACHED DESCRIPTION:

- I. General Description: Some students never responded to our invitation or our emails. In an effort to make contact with these students, some non-respondents were called.
- II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: The purpose of the calls was to increase membership and show the students that we are an organization who cares.
- III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group? No) Phone numbers were obtained from Clemson's online phone directory. Each person contacted was asked if they received the invitation. We sought to confirm their decision and to answer any questions—not to pressure them to join. This was a trial run, and a sample of the non-respondents was contacted.
- IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: There was no cost for local calls.
- V. Special Problems: There were no problems with this project. However, the project duties should be shared, and all non-respondents should be contacted.
- VI. Overall Evaluation/Results (Be specific): Some students never received their letters from the department. Some students do not check their email frequently. While some students still hesitated to join, they were appreciative of the call.
- VII. Index of Exhibits: NONE
